WHAT is the Procurement Expo?

The USG Procurement Expo hosted by Clayton State University is a one-day event that features exhibits from University System institutions and provides information on business opportunities with the institutions of the University System of Georgia, federal, state, and local government agencies, and prime construction management firms. The event targets small, minority, and women-owned businesses; however, all businesses are welcome!

You will have the opportunity to meet representatives from procurement, facilities, and information technology departments of the public colleges and universities in the State of Georgia. In addition, you will network with representatives from the U.S. Small Business Administration, Georgia Department of Administrative Services, Georgia Department of Transportation, Small Business Development Center (SBDC), Clayton County, Cities of Jonesboro, Morrow, Riverdale and more! You will also have the opportunity to meet prime construction management firms currently working with the University System of Georgia.
