WHAT IS THE PROCUREMENT EXPO?

The 2011 North Georgia Regional USG Procurement Expo in collaboration with The Atlanta Tribune's Moving Your Business Forward is a one-day event that features exhibits from University System institutions and provides information on growing businesses, keeping up with advancing technology and wealth building. The event targets small and minority vendors, however, all vendors are welcome.

You will meet representatives from the procurement, facilities, and information technology departments of the public colleges and universities in the State of Georgia. In addition, you will network with representatives from the Georgia Department of Administrative Services, UGA Small Business Development Center, federal, state, county, and local government agencies and more!

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND THE USG NORTH GEORGIA REGIONAL PROCUREMENT EXPO 2011?

- Network and establish relationships with key decision-makers that possess knowledge of upcoming business opportunities.
- Learn the ins and outs of the University System's procurement process and how to avoid common mistakes.
- Gain information from nationally recognized business consultants on growing your business.
- Receive one-on-one assistance to register with the Team Georgia Marketplace.
- Enjoy a buffet lunch featuring Creole cuisine from Copelands® Famous New Orleans Restaurant.
- End the day with a business-to-business networking reception.
